*Here shall the walls be wrought
And the stately fabric gleam,
A court for the kings of thought
And the emperors of dream.*

Katharine Lee Bates

“At the Laying of the Cornerstone” was written in honor of the laying of the cornerstone of Clapp Library on June 5, 1909. This excerpt was printed at the Annis Press, Wellesley College Library, in honor of the rededication of the second floor of Clapp Library on January 29, 2004.
